The complaints are to the effect that the Club has been doare to the effect that the Club has been deing business without a license, that it has been necessary for the police to keep a constant surveillance; that it has depreciated he vatue of property in the neighborhood; that Garneld Park was crowded with fulls and dissolute people, and finally that the money absorbed by the Club came from the industrial class. The Court is asked to perpetually enjoin the Club from carrying on business at the park. The hearing will probably be referred to a Master in Chancery.

The stewards were a long time debating yesterday whether to disquality McCafferty coil Nero in the second race or not. Nero fouled Faiero on the upper turn, and Pairol Judge Flugeraid reported the matter. Mike Beigen, the rider of Faiero, declined to make any complaint, and so McCafferty was dismissed with a warning. The crowd conndeadly expected that McCafferty would get the worst end of the trouble and had the stewards the slichiest cause for disqualitying Nero, the purse would not have gone to the young Western turman. Patrol Judge Flugeraid had no feeling in the matter. It was his duty to report the foul and he would have been drellet had he fatiled to do so.
